

Chapter 2 in the "Epoch of Revolution" by Gary P Caton

There's a New Wave that is breaking, in the wake of a passing Ship.

Every Nation's gonna be shaken, put it together, don't let it slip.

~Gordon Lightfoot "Seven Island Suite"

The 2nd of 7 exact squares between Uranus and Pluto perfects later this month, just before the Equinox, on September 19th. It is happening in the 7th degree of Aries and Capricorn, with the mid-points being the 22nd degrees of Leo and Aquarius.

While the Sabian Symbols for all 4 of the degrees of the first square between these two transpersonals were remarkably spiritual/inward, the symbols from this 2nd square seem to me more outward directed.

I believe this is why we have begun to see more Mundane events related to "Epoch of Revolution" type energies. This means it is going to be even more incumbent upon us supposedly spiritual types to be aware and hold these energies in a safe and healthy fashion, because many may not be able to. That said, these symbols certainly do have their positive and hopeful side, and so there is certainly a possibility of channeling these enormous transpersonal forces successfully or in a healthy fashion

Aries 07 A man comes forward flushed with the successful and simultaneous expression of his talents in two separate realms.

Leo 22 A carrier pigeon comes swiftly through the early light of morning, and flutters to the feet of a group of fanciers.

Aqu 22 A new deep and velvet-like carpet has been placed in an airy nursery and the happy children revel upon it.

So it may be that the while the influence of the first squares was mostly spiritual/inner directed/personal, these 2nd squares may be felt more in terms of overtly mundane events, and/or may be more conducive to being creatively channeled into outer directed experiences

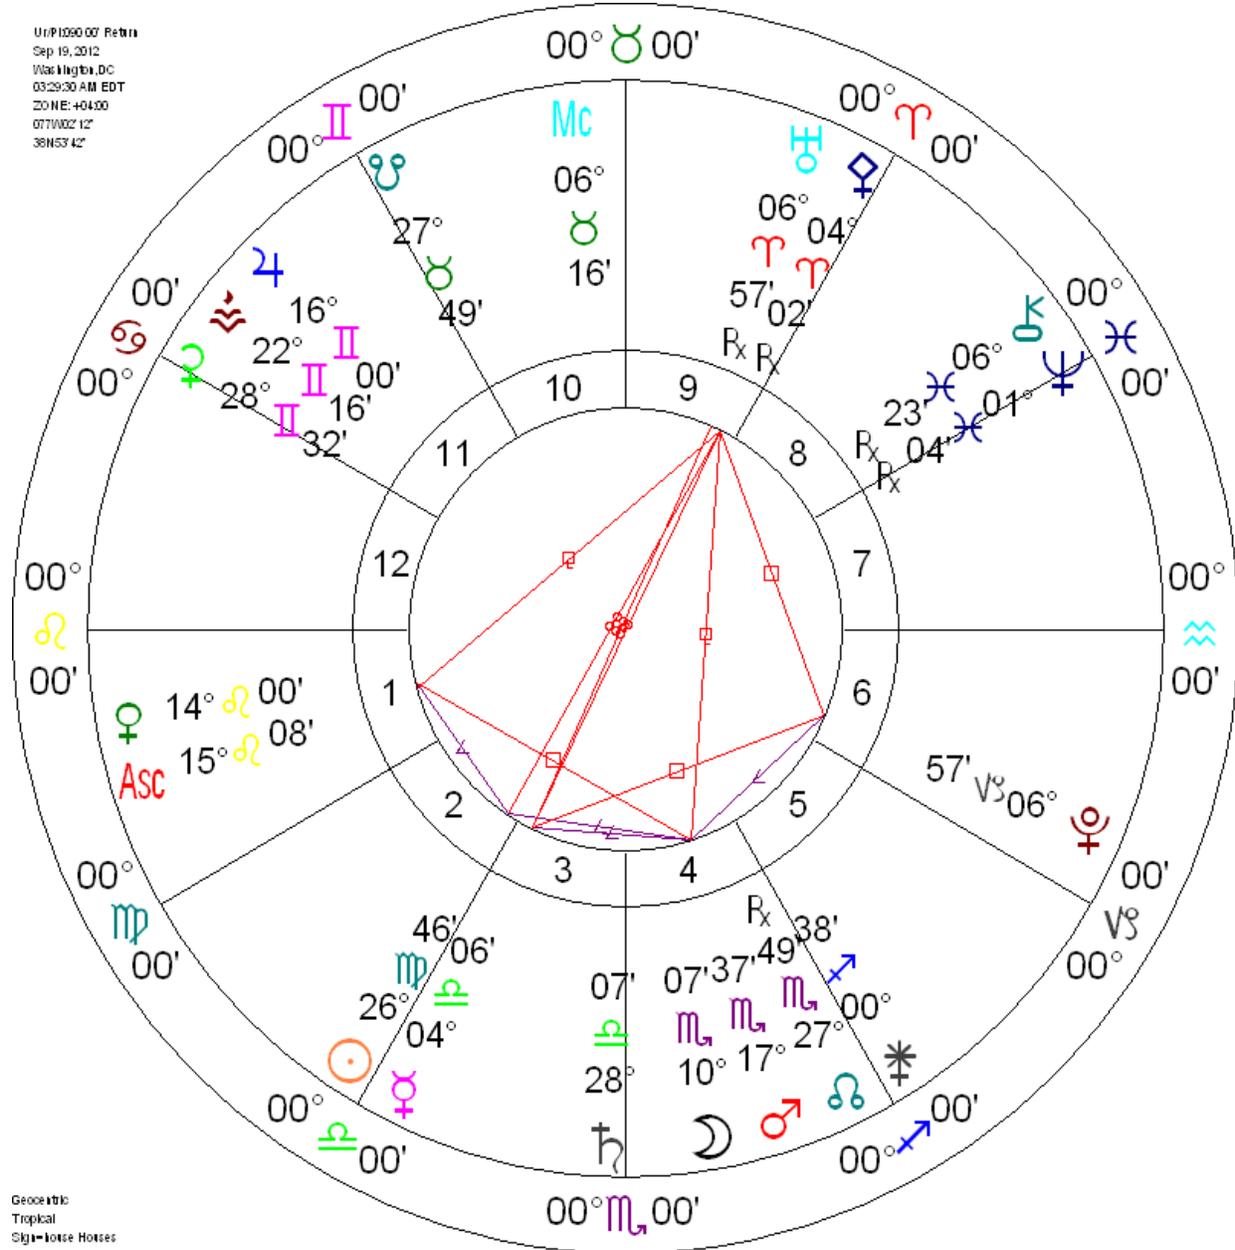

Anyone born with any planets near 7th degree of the cardinal signs (Aries, Cancer, Libra, Capricorn with a 6, 7, or 8 in front of it) could be feeling this in a very personal way (these points are right on the current square).

Also, those born with planets near the 22nd degree of the fixed signs (Taurus, Leo, Scorpio, Aquarius with a 21, 22 or 23 in front of it) could also be feeling this in a very personal way (these points are in the exact middle of the square).

Here is the chart for the 2nd of 7 squares between Uranus and Pluto.

In my recent article for The Mountain Astrologer (to read, click on this link and scroll down to the link which says “The Synergy of Pallas Athene with Uranus-Pluto”), I posited that Pallas seems to be the “octave transformer” between Mercury, Jupiter and Uranus. If this is true, then we should see and feel this square more intensely, as well as have better access to its liberating potential, due to the t-square between Mercury, Uranus/Pallas and Pluto in the chart above.

The planets which aligned in the 60's are now making their next major alignment. When I first started thinking about the Uranus-Pluto Squares of 2012-15, I wrote these Horoscopes back in 2003. They were some of the first horoscopes I ever wrote, and after working as a professional horoscope writer for years, I still think they are pretty darn good. Hope you enjoy. And Remember, Sixties 2.0 is not "out there" it is happening in and thru You. Carpe Diem!

From 2012 -2015, Uranus as the Sybil of Aries in Square to Pluto in Capricorn will speak through a particular pair of Oracles -to particular areas of your life. Consider the guidance below for your Sun Sign, your Moon Sign (or Soul Sign), and your Ascendant Sign.

Pisces: If your life has been acquisitive thus far, watch out, Uranus may bring your Tower tumbling. If you enjoy the independence that material security brings, then be sure you have saved for a rainy day –in hard assets. If you have done so, you may have capital with which to take measured risks –trust your instincts, but do not put all your eggs in one basket. Pluto in the house of associations fosters social contacts with respected professionals who may be able to help you financially –make sure you help them too. If you have no desire for the marketplace now is the time to stand up and fight for your values. Take a leadership role in a grass roots organization and you will increase their cash flow –and yours.

Aquarius: You are nearing an evolutionary leap –the kind that does not happen every lifetime. If you tame these energies a little through meditation, yoga, or some other discipline you will have a much easier time and be a much clearer channel. Visit the Water whenever you can – even move there. You are a natural communicator –even if a bit forceful. If you have not learned to listen, you will need to do so now. You will have a burning desire to unveil the secrets of the Universe, but you will need to learn not to scatter your energies chasing each and every rainbow. There is a sadness within you that you will need to understand or it will haunt your efforts. Ideas or inventions that will benefit institutions, the sick, needy or marginalized individuals are sure to get attention. Charity begins in your backyard, and if you can ease another's suffering you will grow immeasurably. Become informed about the forces of corruption and champion a cause.

Capricorn: You have been through years of change lately. Now is the time to emerge from the cocoon of fear that this has engendered. Real security is an inner state. You are descended from a species whose natural state is that of flux –the hunter/gatherer. Understand that the solutions to your problems are available in your immediate environment. They may not be the ultimate solutions, but they are workable and will give you a better idea to what the ideal solution might be. When the call to adventure comes, be ready to answer it –you have been waiting lifetimes. The tides of these times can take you to the top of the mountain, but radical new ideas of kinship and clan which challenge taboos are likely to find you as well. You are at the top of your game when pushing the boundaries and solidifying the gains of your compadres –known and unknown. You have the power to balance the extremes of an unfair system by changing the system from within.

Sagittarius: You are a natural born philosopher and you can create other-worldly expressions at will which give others inspiration as they catch a glimpse of their own unconscious forces. If you let these energies flow through you freely you will get the recognition of people with clout and money to spend. This is a great time to solidify your position/talents as an artist. Exploring the forces in your formative relationships will unlock a gold-mine of creative energy. Let it loose and give it form. You can use shock value to get the attention of those with influence and money. Cast off the values given you and find out for yourself where you stand. Take this stand and do not bother defending your position but instead beat others to the punch who will question you. You can win over the bourgeoisie to your radical views if you can show them it is in their own self-interest -and their children's. You can find creative, practical solutions which will undermine the established order on issues of corruption, wastefulness and mismanagement of resources.....

Scorpio: You can make service a God. Show how serving others is indeed a service to oneself as it strengthens the collective. You have always had a vigorous constitution, but now you feel something surging through you which can vitalize many more than yourself. Work with your hands which heals, repairs, economizes, adjusts, or restores utility is important and can have far reaching effects on the surroundings. You may get involved in neighborhood projects involving restoration of run-down, neglected or abandoned buildings or common areas. Setting up shop in a neighborhood where this process is ongoing may prove rewarding and could find you in a leadership role. Mingling with diverse people, exchanging ideas and techniques is important and you may be the founder of such a network. You may even want to work on sharing technology with third world countries.

Libra: You are on the way out and the way up at the same time. You are leaving one phase of your life behind and yet you could catch a train that is bound for glory though it is almost full. Be open to the ideas of those around you. Watch look and listen for the buzzwords of the day. You may have to surrender to someone with a vision and follow them until your part becomes clear. Be careful that this person is not the kind who makes enemies, for you may be the one who feels the sting of their revenge. You may be uprooted at this time for you have caught a rising tide, but it is not clear what your part may be for some time. Surrender to this process and take the time to learn all you can and eventually you will become an authority on the subject. Make yourself vital to the day to day operations and move around learning every facet of the process and you will have valuable knowledge when it becomes your turn to take the reigns.

Virgo: A fiscal crisis may cause you to economize, but don't worry there is a windfall waiting if this is done. Investment in new companies dealing with waste management or recycling waste products is advisable. You may be able to do business dealing with these new products exclusively. You may be able to manage other people's money just now and have an uncanny sense of timing in market fluctuations. You are on the cutting edge of resource management issues. You may be able to start a business handling or dealing with other people's money. You have creative ideas for new uses of products considered waste or for limiting or eliminating waste. By first economizing you can help free up resources that may enable quick gains in volatile markets. Get your investment back and consolidate some of your gains before you go for broke. If you are into shamanism or the occult, now may be a time where you receive incredible flashes of insight and progress on your journey. You may want to consult an individual who has made the journey through the Underworld.

Leo: You can understand the theoretical implications behind almost anything which you choose to study. The almost instant grasp of the big picture, the system as a whole, enables you to understand the possible futures of any action. However you will soon find that to make these insights truly useful you must analyze the details and have a working understanding of the system. If you have taken the time to develop an understanding of the basic language inherent in any endeavor, now you will be blessed to find that the whole is truly much more than the sum of the parts. You will understand implicitly the subtle manipulation of detail required for the system to function optimally. You have the energy to cut through miles of red tape and you can bring a spirit of optimism and idealism that will energize. Franchising, and other forms of distribution are important to taking full advantage of this time. A return to the fundamentals, and a re-organization according to your working experience makes you a leader in your chosen field.....

Cancer: You are about to catch a wave that may give you that feeling of being at the top of a roller-coaster ride. You have a tremendous opportunity to merge fates with individuals who serve as catalysts for change in society. You are ready to make real concrete strides toward something you have been wanting to do for a while, if you can make the necessary contacts. The people you meet now will likely push you to your limit, sensing that you have more energy available to you than you think. So get out there and chase that rainbow! You are emerging professionally at an important time, and you will be noticed. Important others sense that you have the bravery to take on the most daunting challenges. You have been biding your time or meeting frustrating delays, but no longer. A revolution is coming and you need to get out there and get in the thick of it. Lead by example and learn to seize the moment! If you have weighed the possible costs you can benefit from extreme measures if you are prepared to not back down.

Gemini: Associations with those of like mind are crucial to your development at this time. You can plumb the deepest darkest secrets of the human heart, those that separate us from one another even as we are surrounded by each other. If you can let go of these yourself, you will experience a new vitality that surges to you from your social contacts.

You can be the upstart who seizes leadership for your ability to demonstrate the failings of a secretive system of oppression that seeks to disguise itself as equality by the use of tactics such as tokenism, false pretenses, and empty promises. Your social contacts are likely to be enlightening forcing you to realize you have only seen the tip of the iceberg. You can appeal to the people by giving them back a sense of dignity and showing your own sense of being above the political games and machinations. Find out the truth and harness its power.....

Taurus: You must let go of everything you thought you knew. Seek alternative sources of information, for if you can free your mind the rest will naturally follow. The doors of perception are open, but can you cleanse your self-interest long enough to see that infinity leads right back to where you stand? You can teach others the simple utility of right livelihood, intentional living and voluntary simplicity. The study of native cultures will bring balance to your spirit and peace to your mind. Dwell within the Earth, commune with the trees, rocks, birds and animals. Find the spots that energize you and seek out the Thunder Beings. Speak of these teachings to others and seek out the wise ones who may illuminate your path. One of these, when you are ready, will lead you on a Vision Quest which will give you the Dream that you are to contribute and spread to all your relations.

Aries: Hosanna! This is the day you have lived for! The double dose of Mars (Uranus and Mars are similar) is likely to make you feel bulletproof, however you are not -so try to make sure if you are sacrificed it is for something you believe in. Pluto at the top of your chart makes you a force for change in the World, but purely selfish aims are likely to backfire. You are a born leader, idea man/woman and inventor so get to work! This is an individual who could be very important to the Uranus-Pluto revolution. After Uranus wakes up the personality, spurring the individual to idealistic action, Pluto in the career house can introduce him/her to the real movers and shakers. The tremendous idealism of this placement may become a force for change.
