

The Lunar Nodes transiting Sagittarius/Gemini: An Ideological Transformation

By: Gary P. Caton

Earlier this week I published an article for The Mountain Astrologer which outlined the total lunar eclipse of 12-10-11

Below is a skyshot of the final of 3 consecutive total lunar eclipses. This eclipse is happening within and near two of the oldest constellations known to humans: Orion the hunter and Taurus the Bull

Clearly human in proportions, evidence of human recognition of the constellation Orion the great hunter in the sky dates back long before the origins of so-called "civilization." A European researcher has interpreted carvings in a 32,500-year-old ivory tablet as a pattern of the same stars that we see in the sky today in the constellation Orion.

Evidence for astronomical knowledge of the constellation Taurus can be seen in the ancient caves of Lascaux, France. the #18 Lascaux auroch with the two associated sets of dots represents the constellation Taurus. This idea was firmly set out by the American astronomer Frank Edge in his 35-page booklet "Aurochs in the Sky" (1995) and later article "Taurus in Lascaux" (1997) from studies in this area in 1991. Frank Edge holds that at least one of the Great Bull images (#18) in the "Hall of Bulls" in the Lascaux cave can be identified as celestial by the simple comparison of the associated dot markings with two particular star groupings as they were viewed on the horizon circa 15,000 B.C. Specifically that a group of 6 dots painted above the shoulder of auroch #18 represents the Pleiades open star cluster, and that another group of V-shaped dots painted on the auroch's face represents the Hyades open star cluster.

The domestication of cattle did not occur until the Neolithic era, several thousands of years after the painting in Lascaux were made, so the Lascaux painting were definitely made by hunters. This caused them to be dismissed as merely attempts at "sympathetic magic" with the object of the hunt. However closer inspection leads some scholars to see the Lascaux paintings as an early proto-Zodiac.

It is important to remember that for the painters at Lascaux, hunting was an up close and personal, bloody affair. Later, after cattle were domesticated, humans began to lose touch with the primal bloody ritual of the hunt. In an attempt to re-connect with this primal life-affirming energy, religions sprang up where the blood of a transformed saviour was seen to wash away sins and granting eternal life. The first of these was Mithraism, with its Tauroctony, or ritual slaying of a bull. Some see Mithraism evolving into Christianity, where the blood of the Lamb, or Christ, replaces the blood of the Bull.

In any event, we can see that the constellations activated by this eclipse are awakening some of the most primal images in our psyches. It would be good to re-frame the energy of blood sacrifice into some other form of give-away ceremony, perhaps similar to the potlatch of the native american tradition. The idea is not to simply exchange gifts, but to sacrifice something important to ourselves for ego purification and in order to allow room for personal growth in the future. It is in this same spirit that I offer the Goddess Astrology Podcast for Free. It is my offering to the collective as an attempt to honor the Sacred Feminine for granting me the Dream/Vision whereby I became an astrologer.

The star closest in longitude to this total lunar eclipse is Rigel, in the left foot of Orion. Brady sees Rigel as an educator, and related to the concept of forward development, not just for oneself, but for the gain of many. Being on the left side of the figure, along with Bellatrix of the left shoulder, is significant. The left side is seen as the feminine side and so stresses feminine, or right brain modes of experience. The processing of visual and audiological stimuli, spatial manipulation, facial perception, and artistic ability seem to be functions of the right hemisphere. We can see this right/left brain distinction laid out graphically in an early alchemical treatise by Merian

The alchemist is in the center, with the masculine principles to his right (the planets Saturn, Jupiter and Mars) and the feminine principles to his left (the planets Venus, Mercury and the Moon). By its position on the left side of Orion, this total lunar eclipse is inviting us to develop our emotional intelligence or what the alchemists called lunar consciousness. This is the intelligence of the heart and it is non-linear, image-driven, intuitive ways of thinking that are accepted in the arts and religions. Among its many symbols are: The Queen, The Moon, the metal Mercury, the Soul, the Holy Ghost, and the prima materia or One Thing of the Emerald Tablet.

Over the next 6 months, if we are diligent in exploring the invitation to Lunar consciousness this total lunar eclipse represents, perhaps we will be rewarded under the Transit of Venus next June, which also occurs right between the horns of the celestial Bull of Heaven (just as this eclipse does).

The Sabian symbol for this total Lunar eclipse is GEMINI 19° A LARGE ARCHAIC VOLUME REVEALS A TRADITIONAL WISDOM. In her newsletter and blog on the subject, Lynda Hill reminds us that “In this Symbol this ‘Wisdom’ is locked away in a ‘Museum’ ... The ‘Museum’ may literally be a building, but it may also be information or knowledge hidden deep within yourself or the elders of your community. This ‘Wisdom’ is held within all of us and merely needs to be tapped to be understood.”

Dane Rudhyar has this to say:

KEYNOTE: Contacting the all-human planetary Mind underlying any cultural and personal mentality.

Occult tradition tells us that all cyclic manifestations of the human mind have had a primordial revelatory Source. It speaks of ancient books made of especially treated papyrus leaves and conveying through symbols the archetypal processes at the root of all earthly existence (see Blavatsky's Secret Doctrine). Such volumes, said to remain in the possession of certain Adepts, constitute the “exteriorization” of archetypal knowledge and wisdom. They contain the “seed-ideas” from which the human mind grows, cyclically producing cultures of various types.

This fourth stage symbol evokes for us the “technique” by means of which the human mind can uncover the foundations of its nature and acquire what might be called SEED-KNOWLEDGE, the knowledge of the structure of cyclic and cosmic manifestations of life on this planet.

If we look at this process in terms of Systems Theory, we can perhaps make a little more sense of the chaos. As living organisms people are open systems: they cannot survive without continuously exchanging matter and energy with their environment. This interaction has two components: input, that which enters the system from the outside, and output, that which leaves the system for the environment. The output of a system is in general a direct or indirect result from the input. What comes out, needs to have found a way in first. However, the output is in general quite different from the input: the system (person) is not just a passive tube, but an active processor. For example, the food, drink and oxygen we take in, leave our body as urine, excrements and carbon dioxide. The transformation of input into output by the system is usually called throughput.

Wherever the transiting Nodes are in your chart are areas of life that are going to undergo some change, or at least have your attention more than usual for the next 12 months or so.

Since it is the sign where North Node eclipses occur now, the house Sagittarius falls will be an area where chaos may be trying to enter into your life. This is the input into the system. The input of an eclipse is basically just added psychic energy which stirs the pot and makes any energetic blockages in the organism more apparent.

The throughput is our own personal responsibility to maintain awareness of these blockages as they come up, and to begin the internal processing work required to remove these. If our throughput processing is even minimally successful, the output will be an ability to let go of blockages and live with greater ease within the areas of life denoted by the transit South Node in Gemini, and thus a more healthy and enhanced expression of both houses on the Gemini-Sagittarius axis.

Besides the horoscopes, here's an excellent article on the basic themes of the Gemini-Sagittarius axis.

Soul Sign Horoscopes:

As the Sybils of Sagittarius/Gemini, the transit Nodes currently speak through a particular pair of Oracles -to particular areas of your life. Consider the guidance below for your Sun Sign, your Ascendant Sign and/or your Moon Sign. Opposing houses are closely related, so it is helpful to consider the pair of houses as a unit through which input is being transformed to output.

Sagittarius:

1st House—>7th House.

The throughput process for the next 18 months will be in your relationship to Self/Other.

- The 1st house is your Persona; it is who we are as social individuals. North Node Eclipses in the 1st house denote a period of personal development and growth in terms of the social masks you wear. You may be asked to take on a new role, or to wear several hats at this time.

- The 7th house is how we relate to other individuals. When you change, this also changes how you relate to others and vice versa. South Node Eclipses in the 7th house denote a period of change and releasing blockages in your awareness of how you project your Shadow onto others.

The current Mercury retrograde of Nov 24-Dec 13 and the total Lunar eclipse of Dec 10 are asking you to release and let go of some attachments in this area.

Wanting people to be a certain way before you accept them is generally not going to yield positive results. Accept people for who they are first, and then if you decide you don't want that energy in your life you can lovingly release them to go on their merry way with your blessings.

- The 10th house is your career and public reputation. Mars at the South Bending in the 10th denote a period of change where sifting, separating and releasing blockages in your awareness of any false identity, ego attachments or undue demands in your career or public life and the process of building a solid reputation.

Scorpio:

2nd House—>8th House.

The throughput process for the next 18 months will be in your relationship to resources.

- The 2nd house is our personal resources; our possessions, our skills, our talents, and our self-worth. North Node Eclipses in the 2nd house denote a period of change and growth in your awareness of what your personal resources are and how you utilize them.
- The 8th house is the house of other people's resources, so both joint finances and intimacy. South Node Eclipses in the 8th house denote a period of change and releasing blockages in your awareness of your responsibilities to others: both physical and emotional. It could also be an indication of a time to explore what truly belongs to all of us, the collective unconscious, via occult activities.

The coming Mercury retrograde of Nov 24-Dec 13 and the total Lunar eclipse of Dec 10 are asking you to release and let go of some attachments in this area. Wanting people to have an obvious or tangible contribution to your own life before you let them in is limiting your options. Try trusting that this is true and then seeing part of the relationship as a treasure hunt to find it.

- The 11th house is the house of friendships; this is the house of group participation and shared creativity. Mars at the south Bending in the 11th house denote a period of change where sifting, separating and releasing blockages in your awareness of any false identity, ego attachments and releasing blockages in your awareness of your peers and social networks.

You may need to put the group process on the back burner and concentrate on you own individual creative process in order to understand what is not working about the group dynamic.

Libra:

3rd House—>9th House.

The throughput process for the next 18 months will be in your relationship to communications

- The 3rd house is our local community, our communication and our personal spiritual practices. North Node Eclipses in the 3rd house denote a period of change and growth in your awareness of how you communicate with others, get around your local environment and engage in personal ritual.

- The 9th house is foreign countries, ideas and philosophies, and religion. South Node Eclipses in the 9th house denote a period of change and releasing blockages in your awareness of your World-View and how it conditions your experiences.

The coming Mercury retrograde of Nov 24-Dec 13 and the total Lunar eclipse of Dec 10 are asking you to release and let go of some attachments in this area. Expectation is the Mother of disappointment. Try seeing the World as brand new virgin territory to be explored, rather than a place where certain norms and expectations are to be met. If things don't meet your expectations then it could be a sign to move on, but it could also be an invitation to let go of unrealistic or unnecessary expectations.

- The 12th house is our personal unconscious. Mars at the South Bending in the 12th house denotes a period of change where sifting, separating and releasing blockages in your awareness of needing to spend time alone, exploring your personal unconscious via meditation, journaling, breathwork, shamanic journeying or other spiritual exercise.

You may need to let go of your needs to serve the collective for awhile and focus more on your own personal routines and service to individuals

Virgo: 4th House—>10th House.

The throughput process for the next 18 months will be in your relationship to balancing your private life with your public life.

- The 4th house is your home, family and ancestral heritage. North Node Eclipses in the 4th house denote a period of change and growth in your awareness of your roots and the foundations of your life.
- The 10th house is your career and public reputation. South Node Eclipses in the 10th house denote a period of change and releasing blockages in your awareness of the demands of your career or public life and building a solid reputation.

The coming Mercury retrograde of Nov 24-Dec 13 and the total Lunar eclipse of Dec 10 are asking you to release and let go of some attachments in this area. All systems have boundaries and healthy boundaries are semi-porous. It is through these pores or opening that toxins leave the body. Somewhat paradoxically, rather than closing down in a protective stance, you may need to open up your boundaries a bit in order to allow some negative energy room to leave.

- Output: The 1st house is your Persona; it is who we are as social individuals. Mars transiting the South Bending in the 1st house denote a period of change -sifting, separating and releasing blockages in personal development in terms of the social masks you wear.

You may be trying to wear too many hats or just have worn one of your hats completely out. If there is a role you have taken on that you can't get away from right now, then perhaps you can balance the energy via talking to or spending time with someone whom you share a close relationship. You might feel better about yourself by focusing on others.

Leo: 5th House—>11th House.

The throughput process for the next 18 months will be in your relationship to individual expression and group participation.

- The 5th house is your creative expression, recreation, children, and love affairs. Eclipses in the 5th house denote a period of change and growth in your awareness of the creative urge, and romantic partners.
- The 11th house is the house of friendships; this is the house of group participation and shared creativity. Eclipses in the 11th house denote a period of change and releasing blockages in your awareness of your peers and social networks.

The coming Mercury retrograde of Nov 24-Dec 13 and the total Lunar eclipse of Dec 10 are asking you to release and let go of some attachments in this area. Collaboration between artists is a tricky thing. Often the ego gets tangled up in their own machinations and it can be a big mess. But when it works organically, it works beautifully. If it aint workin organically, try surrendering some of the ego involved, or you might simply need to move on.

- Output: The 2nd house is our personal resources; our possessions, our skills, our talents, and our self-esteem. Mars at the South Bending in the 2nd house denote a period of change, of sifting sorting and releasing blockages in your awareness of what your personal resources are and how you utilize them.

By letting go of resources which you are not using you can free up energy which will return to you in a more usable form. You might be able to trade, barter for or even borrow the things you need for now.

Cancer: 6th House—>12th House.

The throughput process for the next 18 months will be in your relationship to routine, both physical and spiritual.

- Input: The 6th house is all of the things we do on a daily basis, our daily routines, including our jobs. North Node Eclipses in the 6th house denote a period of change and growth in your awareness of your routines, skill sets, and your body's physical needs to avoid illness.

- Output: The 12th house is our personal unconscious. South Eclipses in the 12th house denote a period of change and releasing blockages in your awareness of needing to spend time alone, exploring your personal unconscious via meditation, journaling, breathwork, shamanic journeying or other spiritual exercise.

The coming Mercury retrograde of Nov 24-Dec 13 and the total Lunar eclipse of Dec 10 are asking you to release and let go of some attachments in this area. If you have been relatively isolated in your own shell then you will need to get out and get some fresh air and conversation. If you've been relatively active lately then you may need to find some room for stillness. Whatever your basic routine has been you will need to open up some room for its opposite.

- Output: The 3rd house is our local community, our communication and our personal spiritual practices. Mars at the South Bending in the 3rd house denote a period of change -of sifting, sorting and releasing blockages in your awareness of how you communicate with others, get around your local environment and engage in personal ritual.

You might need to let go of your attachments to the old neighborhood and expand your connections to places and people in your local community. Try hanging out at some new places and talking with some new people.

Gemini:

7th House → 1st House.

The throughput process for the next five months will be in your relationship to Self/Other.

- Input: The 7th house is how we relate to other individuals. When you change, this also changes how you relate to others and vice versa. North Node Eclipses in the 7th house denote a period of change and growth in your awareness of others and how you meet your Shadow via others.

You may have been playing a particular role for too long. Consider for the moment letting go of the need to take on a pre-supposed role entirely. Consider instead what role the events surrounding you requires.

Output: The 4th house is your home, family and ancestral heritage. Mars at the South Bending in the 4th house denote a period of change -of sifting sorting and releasing blockages in your awareness of your roots and the foundations of your life. Mars at the S Bending might be about “getting over” or moving on” past old injuries to our ego.

If there is nothing to get over, then Mars at the S Bend may be plumbing the depths of the psyche to sift, sort and root into the appropriate resources and set the foundations for something, like a new relationship

Taurus: 8th House → 2nd House.

The throughput process for the next five months will be in your relationship to resources.

- Input: The 8th house is the house of other people's resources, so both joint finances and intimacy. North Node Eclipses in the 8th house denote a period of change and growth in your awareness of your responsibilities to others: both physical and emotional. It could also be an indication of a time to

- Output: The 2nd house is our personal resources; our possessions, our skills, our talents, and our self-esteem. South Node Eclipses in the 2nd house denote a period of change and releasing blockages in your awareness of what your personal resources are and how you utilize them.

The coming Mercury retrograde of Nov 24-Dec 13 and the total Lunar eclipse of Dec 10 are asking you to release and let go of some attachments in this area.

You've been thinking you're either not ready, not yet good enough, or not yet powerful enough to lay claim to the collective resources now available to you. But I can assure you that you've earned it. Or perhaps you want to do it all. Let go of stubborn resistance to accepting help or contributions from others. Allowing someone else to give is a gift. Become this gift of acceptance and allow others to give of themselves as you always have. In this way the Circle of Life is completed.

- Output: The 5th house is your creative expression, recreation, children, and love affairs. Mars at the South Bending in the 5th house denote a period of change -of sifting and sorting and releasing blockages in your awareness of the creative urge, and romantic partners.

You may need to let go of some part of your own creative process and get more involved in a group dynamic. Bouncing ideas off of colleagues and collaborating with like minded folk will help free up whatever you were getting stuck on by yourself.

The coming Mercury retrograde of Nov 24-Dec 13 and the total Lunar eclipse of Dec 10 are asking you to release and let go of some attachments in this area.

Release attachments to places you have grown comfortable within your local community, or any patterns of how you move through it. Shed these patterns like a snake sheds its skin. You may come back eventually but for now you need to seek out new corners to explore and new fellows to converse with.

- Output: The 6th house is all of the things we do on a daily basis, our daily routines, including our jobs. Mars at the South Bending in the 6th house denote a period of change -of sifting, sorting and releasing blockages in your awareness of your routines, skill sets, and your body's physical needs to avoid illness.

You may need to get out of a rut by getting involved in some kind of collective service. Charity work or taking a retreat or sabbatical may help you to get free of the restrictive patterns that were holding you to a daily grind that was not working for you. Take some time for quiet and experience the Great Mystery

Pisces: 10th House → 4th House.

The throughput process for the next five months will be in your relationship to balancing your private life with your public life.

- Input: The 10th house is your career and public reputation. North Node Eclipses in the 10th house denote a period of change and growth in your awareness of the demands of your career or public life and building a solid reputation.
- Output: The 4th house is your home, family and ancestral heritage. South Node Eclipses in the 4th house denote a period of change and releasing blockages in your awareness of your roots and the foundations of your life.

The coming Mercury retrograde of Nov 24-Dec 13 and the total Lunar eclipse of Dec 10 are asking you to release and let go of some attachments in this area.

Contrary to popular belief, the presence of the Divine is not just “above” you. The Emerald Tablet tells us: “It rises from the Earth to Heaven and descends again to Earth, thereby combining within itself the powers of both the Above and Below.” Imagine again that you are a Tree, or a planet, or a star, and your energy is rising and descending.

- The 7th house is how we relate to other individuals. When you change, this also changes how you relate to others and vice versa. Mars at the South Bending in the 7th house denote a period of change -of sifting, sorting and releasing blockages in your awareness of how you project your Shadow onto others.

You may need stop engaging someone with whom you are having difficulty. Try to let go of any desire to control others or even have any control over the outcome of a situation. You may need to let go and let god and focus on the only person you have any control over -yourself.

The coming Mercury retrograde of Nov 24-Dec 13 and the total Lunar eclipse of Dec 10 are asking you to release and let go of some attachments in this area.

Let go of your attachments to routine. Try waking up and letting the Day tell you how it wants to arrange itself. Ask questions and listen for the answers. Allow time and space for No-Thing in your life.

- The 9th house is foreign countries, ideas and philosophies, and religion. Mars at the South Bending in the 9th house denote a period of change and releasing blockages in your awareness of your World-View and how it conditions your experiences.

You may feel like you have experienced enough in terms of your relationship with the future, foreign cultures and education. And you may be ready to let some of this go for the time being. This may take the form of focusing on the here and now and putting larger projects on the back burner. You can always come back to them later when the time is right.
